

Welcome

24 April to 27 April 2001

Geologists believe Australia is the oldest continent on Earth. Its red soil, green mountains and turquoise lagoons spawned the koala, the kookaburra and the kangaroo. Long hours of sunshine bathe its tropical rainforests, its fertile farmlands, and its woodlands covered with eucalyptus trees. Australia beckons people to live life outdoors. It is here on this ancient island continent that Maharaji will come for four days in April to share his timeless message.

While we endeavour to provide the highest level of service to all our participants, we cannot generally provide special facilities or assistance for disabled participants and it is your responsibility to arrange for such assistance. Neither Elan Vital Ltd, the Operators nor any of its suppliers, shall be liable for any illness, injury or death arising from a medical condition whether or not such medical condition was pre-existing at the commencement of the arrangements and whether or not it was disclosed to Elan Vital Ltd or the Operators.

If the Operators in association with a qualified medical practitioner find it necessary that the participant be transferred to a hospital medical emergency centre because of injury or illness then you authorise the Operators to do so to a destination and in a manner chosen by them in association with the medical practitioner.

SPECIAL REQUESTS

We will endeavour to comply with any special requests you may have. These must be made in writing at the time of booking. However, we cannot guarantee that any special requests will be provided.

We make every reasonable effort to ensure that what is stated is followed and that other suppliers of services are efficient and reputable. However, since we have no direct control over them we reserve the right to vary the arrangements. Arrival and departure transfers are provided as a courtesy service only and should you miss them no compensation for any transfer expenses incurred will be paid.

CANCELLATIONS BY US

We reserve the right to cancel your booking up to 28 days prior to departure, and assess cancellation charges as detailed above if payment of the full plan price is not received by the due date.

Reasons beyond our control include, but are not limited to, adverse weather conditions, nuclear disasters, industrial disputes, hostilities, terrorism, mechanical failures of transportation, and similar occurrences. In these circumstances we will where possible offer you a refund of all moneys saved on cancelled hotel accommodation and transport bookings.

As the price of on-site accommodation contributes towards the total set-up cost of the event a refund may not be available. We retain absolute discretion to decide the amount of any refund. Where possible suitable alternatives will be offered but we will be under no further obligation or liability thereafter. If participation in an alternative event is accepted by you any additional costs must be paid by you.
